

Inhabitants of the Village of Łuh/Łuh /Lug Who Were Evicted to Stanislavska (Ivano-Frankivsk) Region

The information below was published in the three volume set of books by Dr. Yaroslava Galyk who documented the evictions of Lemkos during the 1944-1946 period. Scanned pages relating to the village of Łuh were provided by Vladyslav Serdiuk, a member of the Lemko Ancestry & DNA Facebook group. The documents were in Ukrainian and Google Translate was used to translate the documents.

The list of evictions for Łuh, a former village in Gmina Cisna, Poland, contained 37 families and a total of 216 individuals whose resettlement destination was Stanislavska, now the Ivano-Frankivsk region in Ukraine. The 23 surnames of the families evicted included: Betsa, Bodnar, Chervenjak/Chervanyk, Dzendza/Zenza, Fenchyshyn, Fendak/Fonzak, Hodovanets, Hook, Hreshko/Greschko, Kachor, Kanyuk, Khatlevich, Korotko/Krotko, Laver, Lutsiv, Malynyak, Maruschak, Mega/Meha, Oschep/Oschyp, Pohlid, Rebynehak, Stolytsya, and Varkholyak. The ages of the individuals ranged from 86 (one individual born in 1860) to less than six months (six individuals born in 1946).

Łuh was the village of origin of my great-grandparents Iwan Hreczko and Anna Lishko and their daughter Mary (Hreczko) Warcholak. I have never found any individuals from Łuh with the Lishko surname listed in the metrical records or the deportation lists. Perhaps it was a family nickname.

These evictions, which occurred on June 6, 1946, preceded the Akcja Wisła deportations of Łuh inhabitants. The Akcja Wisła deportations, documented by Evhen Misilo, occurred April 28 -May 10, 1947, resulting in eviction of 55 Łuh residents.¹
