TKATCH, Carol J. (Mercadante)

As you read this today, I have completed the final chapter of my life. On April 9, 2001, in The Medical Center, Beaver, my courageous (a term my children would insist upon) one-year battle with cancer ended. However, I do not want you to grieve. I want you to carry on remembering all of the beautiful memories that we have created and shared together. As for the details of my life, I was born on May 15, 1942, in Sewickley, to Charles J. and Olga (Malenich) Mercadante. I resided in Baden for the last 39 years of my life and was a member of St. Mary's Byzantine Catholic Church. Truly, the greatest success of my life was the raising of my three children, all of whom survive me. They include my daughter and son-in-law, Laura S. and Timothy J. Buck; my son and daughter-in-law, Dru A. and Shannen Tkatch, and my youngest son, Neil R. Tkatch. They all reside in Baden and have surrounded me with love, not only in my final days, but throughout my entire life. My children also provided me with another of the greatest joys of my life, my grandsons, Brandon and Aadan Buck, and Philip and Owen Tkatch, all of who survive me and are also of Baden. In addition, I am survived by my father, Charles J.; my brother, Charles R., Fair Oaks; my sister and brother-in-law, Nancy and Thomas Throckmorton of Baden; my mother-in-law, Mary (Garbinsky) Tkatch of Baden; my sisters-in-law and their husbands, Marlene and Ronald Kennedy, and Virginia and Walter Raven, all of Baden; many loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and dear friends, and my two constant household companions and pets, Alex and Rocky. I was preceded in death by my mother, Olga, and my father-in-law, Joseph Tkatch, both in 1999. I must take a moment to thank all of you who have helped my children and myself over the past year, in the coming days, and over the span of my own and their lives. Your kindness in the form of love, support, prayers, flowers, food and gentle thoughts and words will never be forgotten. I thank you for all that you have done and for all you will continue to do. As I finish my final thoughts, I want you to remember that I loved you all. And although I am no longer physically with you, my love will surround you for all of your days on this earth. Live your lives to their fullest. I did. Do not become overwhelmed in mourning me. As I taught my children, you must be a survivor in this world. Know that in your hearts and minds, I will be with you always. With love...your mom, grammy, sister, daughter, aunt, mother-in-law, daughter-in-law, family member and friend, Carol. Friends will be received today from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. in the John Syka Funeral Home Inc., 833 Kennedy Drive, Ambridge, where a funeral service will be conducted Thursday at 9 a.m. followed by a Divine Liturgy at 9:30 a.m. in St. Mary's Byzantine Catholic Church. Rig Rams Auto Collision Fatal to Man

Clyde - A Turtle Creek man was killed yesterday afternoon in a tractor trailer-car collision at the intersection of Route 22 and old Route 22, just east of here. The victim, Michael Warholak, 62, driver of the car, was dead on arrival at Indiana Area Hospital at 6:10 p.m. Cause of death was listed as internal injuries and multiple head injuries by Indiana County Deputy Coroner James Sadler. State police of Indiana substation identified the rig operator as Samuel Wolbert, 28 of Clarion. Mr. Wolbert was taken to Lee Hospital, Johnstown, for examination and later released. Investigating officers said the rig was eastbound on Route 22 and was carrying heavy machinery when the Warholak auto pulled onto the main highway into the path of the truck. Upon impact, the tractor-trailer veered across the four lanes of Route 22 and plunged down an embankment. Employees at the Armagh substation of Citizens Ambulance Service, Inc. removed Mr. Warholak from the car. Three wrecking services in the area were summoned to the scene but were unable to move the rig and its heavy machinery up the embankment. The wreckers included Stiffler and Sons Service Station, Black Lick; Young's Service Station, New Florence RD 2, and Sabo Bros. Garage, Penn Run RD 1. Both the tractor-trailer and the car were demolished, police said. Damages exceeded $35,000 to the rig and $2,500 to the car. (Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pa., August 13, 1975)

WARHOLIC, George A.

George A. Warholic, 92, formerly of Sturges and Jermyn, died Monday (August 7, 2006) at Abington Manor after a courageous battle with diabetes. His wife is Helen Ruziskey Warholic. They celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary on May 11. Born in Sturges on May 12, 1914, he was the son of the late Joseph and Mary Semanision Warholic. He lived on the Warholic family farm in Greenfield Township and was educated in Greenfield Township school before moving to Sturges and attending Eynon public school. In the early 1940s, he and his wife were employed by Remington Arms in Bridgeport, Conn., before moving back to Sturges where he resided 55 years. He was a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, Peckville, and its Holy Name Society, and was a member of Sturges Hose Company 5. Prior to retirement in 1972, he built, owned and operated the Tastee Freez Soft Ice Cream on the Scranton/Carbondale Highway in Sturges and the Tastee Freez in Tunkhannock. George was a self-made man and unique individual who always took care of his family. He helped anyone in need, especially if anything needed fixing by the "man of all trades." A kind person who was always smiling, he loved his family and was a great historian who liked to talk to everyone and tell humorous stories, especially hunting stories, and he always made everyone laugh. He enjoyed hunting trips, gardening, riding his lawnmower, and being an Atlanta Braves fan. He was the type of person who made a lasting impression on everyone he met. Also surviving are a son, Leonard and wife, Vienna Warholic, Eynon; a daughter, Patricia

Warholic, Jermyn; two grandsons: David Warholic and wife, Paula, Souderton; and Philip Warholic, Mechanicsburg; two great-grandchildren, Michael Hood and Danielle Warholic; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. He was also preceded in death by four brothers, Joseph, Stephen, Andrew and John (Jake) Warholic; and five sisters, Anna Gronski, Veronica Taugher, Mary Warholic, Josephine Dearing and Betty Fron. The family would like to express their gratitude to the entire staff at Abington Manor, Mid-Valley Hospital and Southern Care Hospice for their care and compassion. The funeral will be Friday at 8:45 a.m. from the Arthur A. Albini Funeral Home, 1003 Church St., Jessup, with Mass at 9:30 in Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, Willow Street, Peckville. Interment, SS. WARHOLIC, Jean Roberts (Martin)

Jean Roberts Martin Warholic passed away on July 14, 2014 at the age of 70 from complications of Alzheimer's Disease. She resided on Ringwood Road in Freeville for over 30 years, followed by moves to Longview, Clarebridge and Beechtree Care Center. Family and friends are grateful for the many caregivers who supported Jean during her long illness. Memories of her bright smile and vivid personality will continue to brighten our lives. Jean was born in Bloomington, IN to Clyde and Alice Jones Martin. The doctor who delivered her was the first woman doctor in that community. Jean played oboe in the high school band and also set several records as a near Olympic swimmer. She returned to Bloomington to attend Indiana University, where she received her BS in Arts and Sciences. It was here that she met her future husband, Don Warholic. Jean served briefly as an Appalachian Volunteer in the Eastern Kentucky coalfields and then worked for two years as a photographer for the Mountain Eagle Newspaper in Whitesburg. Jean and Don were married in 1970 following his return from several years in the Peace Corps in Nigeria and Somalia. They moved to Ithaca for Don to pursue graduate studies, and then employment, as a Research Assistant in the Dept. of Vegetable Crops at Cornell. Jean worked for the Interlaken, Trumansburg, and Ovid newspapers, and then later for Cornell on various departmental grant projects. Jean also was the Executive Secretary of the NYS Vegetable Growers Association for 19 years, managing their office and promotional efforts, as well as producing their newsletters and co-managing the annual statewide winter conference. Jean volunteered for a variety of organizations, including the Dewitt Historical Society (now the History Center of Tompkins County), Fingerlakes Beekeepers, and the Ithaca Memorial Society (now the Funeral Consumer's Alliance). She worked on special projects, many of them relating to photography, including production of the Verne Morton book. She was also very active in the Black Sheep Handspinners Guild since its inception in 1974, and was known for her interest in indigo dyeing. She never missed an opportunity to ride a Carousel, and loved all things "cat". Jean was predeceased by her husband Don in 1990, and by her mother Alice in 2010. Her father Clyde, younger brother Reed Martin and wife Barbara (6431 79th St. Cabin John, MD 20818), and her cat Katahdin, survive her. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be directed to the Home Textile Museum, P.O. Box 153, Rome, PA 18837; History Center of T.C., 401 E. State St., Ithaca; SPCA, 1640 Hanshaw Rd., Ithaca, or to Hospicare, 172 E. King Rd., Ithaca, NY 14850. An informal time of remembrance will be held on Sunday, August 10 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the home of Monte and Ellie May, 1360 Slaterville Rd., Ithaca, 607-272-8224; mmay1@twcny.rr.com.
